CIGAR MENU

Welcome to the 2008 edition of our cigar menu, detailing our current range of Cigars. We strive to offer something for all tastes and every occasion. We have included a few notes that we hope will assist you in your selection process.

The menu is divided into four sections.

1. Cuban Cigars
2. Other Handrolled Cigars
3. Other Cigars
4. Information

CUBAN CIGARS - Let me welcome you to the fascinating and amazing World of the Cuban cigar. There are but a handful of things in this World that are accepted without question to be the very best, a Havana cigar is one of them. We are delighted to offer you the following selection – there will from time to time be limited edition or new cigars added, so please ask in store for further details.

ROMEO Y JULIETA - Possibly the best known Havana brand, Romeo y Julieta named after William Shakespeare's famous lovers dates from 1875. Founded by Alvarez y Garcia it was not until 1903 when 'Pepin' Fernandez Rodriguez, the factory manager, acquired the business and turned it into one of Cuba's leading cigar brands.

Romeo y Julieta's balanced and aromatic blend of leaves from the Vuelta Abajo region make it the classic (and probably accepted as the best) medium bodied cigar from Havana. The range has a cigar for every occasion, including the world famous Churchill (named after Sir Winston Churchill).

H.UPMANN - Herman Upmann established this brand in 1844, a banker from Germany. Herr Upmann was obsessed with the quality of his cigars. Herman decided to put his signature on each box when labelling was introduced during the 1860's a tradition maintained until this day.

H.Upmann's handmade cigars are all made from tobaccos grown in the Vuelta Abajo region. Providing a smooth smoke with a subtle light/mild flavour, it is an ideal cigar for those new to Havana's, or a delightful smoke for the regular smoker.

EL REY DEL MUNDO - 1882 saw the Antonio Allones factory which had been producing Havana cigars since 1848 launch a brand of premium quality and price. With great confidence but little modesty it was named 'El Rey del Mundo' – The King of the World. Now made in the Romeo Y Julieta factory, but still providing it's world renowned light/medium flavour, but full of substance.

Again a cigar ideal for the novice cigar smoker or a daytime smoke. We currently offer two sizes the small demitasse is an ideal choice as an aperitif cigar.

PUNCH - Founded by Don Manuel Lopez of Juan Valle & Co in 1840. Punch is one of the oldest Havana brands still being produced. It was established with an eye to the booming British market where the humorous magazine of the same name was much in vogue. Punch's very distinctive medium bodied flavour, with a somewhat tangy taste and aroma of freshly sawn wood.

HOYO DE MONTERREY - Founded in the mid 1860's by José Gener, who had previously grown tobacco in the village of San Juan Y Martinez which lies in the heart of the Vuelta Abajo region of Cuba. The light flavour of the Hoyo de Monterrey blend make it an attractive choice for those who seek a delicate but aromatic cigar. It is lighter bodied than most Havana's, its creamy sweetness and complexity give it great elegance.

SAINT LUIS REY - This brand was introduced just before the Second World War. Very much designed for the British market. This small range of cigars made with leaves from Vuelta Abajo and Semi Vuelta regions are renowned for their richness and intensity of flavour. Saint Luis Rey have a unique unmistakable aroma and subtle sweetness, making this an enjoyable cigar almost any time.

COHIBA - Created in 1968 for personal use of Cuban Presidenté Fidel Castro. In 1982 production increased to present to the world. Fermentation is a unique factor in Cohiba cigars whilst other brands are double fermented, Cohiba are triple fermented (3-3½ years). Only the best torcedores are employed to produce Cohiba cigars. A rich full flavoured smoke.

COHIBA MADURO 5 - launched in 2007 this is the first truly Maduro cigar from Cuba, only fitting that it forms a new range to the premier 'grand marque'. The Maduro finish is achieved by ageing the wrapper leaf for 5 years. These are excellent cigars providing a rich earthy fully rounded flavour, a smoke of medium to fuller body.

MONTECRISTO - Established in 1935 by the Menendez and Garcia families and produced in the H. Upmann factory. Montecristo originally appeared in just five sizes, described by numbers not names. The other sizes such as the 'A' and Especiales were added in the early 1970's. Montecristo's distinctive flavour delighted cigar smokers so much that it has reigned as the most popular Havana for nearly three decades.

The Montecristo 'A' and No. 2 are amongst the most prestigious of Cuban cigars and the Montecristo No. 4 (petit corona size) is the single most popular Havana cigar in the world. In general, Montecristo offer a medium to fuller flavoured smoke, with a distinguished aroma appealing to both new and experienced smokers. The classic pyramid shaped larger sized No. 2 is a rather fuller bodied cigar.

Montecristo cigars are never boring and no other cigar has yet matched its appeal and magic.

TRINIDAD - Named after the 16th Century city La Santisima Trinidad (The Holy Trinity) on Cuba's south coast. The brand dates from 1969 but was only released for public sale in 1998. Before that it was made for Fidel Castro and gifts for important foreign dignitaries. For nearly 6 years there was only one size available but in 2003, 3 new Vitola's were launched.

Made at the El Laguisto factory these cigars are the quintessential Cuban smoke providing a smooth medium smoke with excellent after taste. A must at some point for any serious cigar smoker.

CUABA - Launched on the British market in 1996, Cuaba recreates the figurado/perfecto shape popular in the 19th century that had disappeared in the 1930's. Habanos SA intended, with this brand, to popularise 'smaller' cigars. Cigars which give a superb medium to fuller flavoured smoke, but also owing to the shape, a cigar which offers some delicate changes to flavour throughout the smoke.

BOLIVAR - Simon Bolivar was one of the great historic characters of the 19th Century liberating much of South America from Spanish rule. In 1901, seventy one years after his death, the Rocha Company in Havana commemorated him on their cigars. It is perhaps not surprising that a brand named after such a powerful figure is blended to match his might. Bolivar are amongst the strongest, most full bodied of all Havanas, boasting an unrivalled richness of flavour.

A robust earthy full flavoured and bodied smoke, definitely not for the uninitiated.

ROCKY PATEL 'VINTAGE 1990 SERIES' - Rocky Patel has spent many years in the cigar world, and is President of the Indian Tobacco Cigar Company in America. In the last few years he has started to produce a few cigars in his name, this vintage series, being in my opinion something special. A blend of Dominican and Nicaraguan tobacco, with the wrapper being 12 years old and the filter tobaccos 7 year old, produce a really well balanced fine cigar. A rare treat for the true aficionado.
