Cropwell Bishop Stilton blue, vegetarian, pasteurised cow's milk, Nottinghamshire, England.

Westcombe Cheddar made at Westcombe Dairy, Somerset, this traditional cheese has a strong, slightly peppery character.

Rachel semi hard cheese with a washed rind. The taste is mellow with a lingering delicate goats' milk flavour.

Stinking Bishop. This soft creamy cheese gets its name from the pear variety used in the 'Perry Wash' for the rind. It gives the cheese a lift.

Waterloo made in Riseley from unpasteurised cow's milk. Soft texture with a rich, yet delicate flavour.

Crozier Blue pasteurised sheep's milk, tastes creamy and salty with toasted nutty flavours made in County Tipperary, Ireland.
