

Davy's Wine Merchants was established in 1870 and remains to this day an independent and family wine business. The Boot & Flogger was the first wine bar opened in 1965 by 4th generation John Davy using the Vintners' Privilege and became the blueprint for several Davy's wine bars in the City and West End of London.

The Vintners' privilege was an historical charter dating back to the reign of Queen Elizabeth in 1567. Granted by the Worshipful Company of Vintners', the charter permitted the sale of wine without a magistrates license. This charter was abolished by the Labour Government in 2005 due to the reform of licensing laws.
